

Participants: More than 60 participants are expected to attend the breeding b2b event on April 12, 2018. It includes three international breeding companies. two Private companies involved in semen import and distribution, 10 Private AI service providers, 5 government AI service providers, 30 commercial dairy farms, 5 dairy cooperatives, 4 Youth group and other potential AI service provider, 2 development partners working in breed improvement, 3 government representatives (Ministry of Livestock and Fishery, National Artificial Insemination Centre,)